It applies math and science to the game to help determine what makes a good player, a good coach, and a winning team. It is ideal for students to learn math, but it also introduces scientifically publishable techniques for analyzing how individuals interact. New Short Term Goal: EBPL 8.0 EG 5.5 Lifetime goal 9x6.5 PE log and journal. 05-07-2008, 06:47 AM TheContinental. I will of course be following closely, looks like you have been accelerating your gains even, nice work. I think the constant heat is a great idea, keeps things loose and pliable. Are you going to continue with the O bends at all?
